#ONELOVEONEHEARTONEPRIDE

Happy Pride Month

"Pride to me is the ultimate commitment to being true to who you are and surrounding myself with friends and chosen family who help me feel seen, loved, and understood. I got involved with the Baltimore Pride committee because I wanted to connect with the community and help elevate the city and celebration that I love so deeply. I am so grateful for the opportunity to work with such a talented group of people and I cannot wait to celebrate together at Baltimore Pride!"

~ Ari Hamilton-Gery
Corporate Communications Manager
Baltimore Pride Marketing Committee

"The 2022 Baltimore Pride Festival will be extraordinary this year, featuring nationally known headliners for the first time and the best among local artists. The vast brilliance of same-gender-loving (SGL), bi, trans, gender nuanced people, and the LGBTQ spectrum will weave a beautiful Black, White, Asian, Latinx, and Native mosaic affirming our rich diversity. The 2022 Pride Committee has been like butter."

We hope all that we do reflects all that we are.

ARI VOXX – 12:45pm

Ari Voxx is DC's Dreamy Pop Princess. Well-versed in many different music worlds, she writes and performs songs that are eclectic and authentically her, transcending genres, although her sound is heavily inspired by the moods and vibes of 80s/90s new-wave and pop artists. "The songs penned by the self-described 'sad dream queen' are gentle indie pop ditties with deceptive darkness below reverb-drenched guitar, jazzy rhythms and her warm, round vocal tones. They are heavy with lyrics about romance, nostalgia and ennui, and feelings of longing and not belonging."

JOSH TOBIAS – 1:00PM

Josh Tobias is a Baltimore based singer songwriter whose powerful voice, honest lyrics, and commanding stage presence have garnered him a dedicated fanbase. Originally from Long Island, NY, Josh has been writing and performing since 2015, experimenting with several genres of music over the years. Monte began ELDERPRIDE at the PARK with an amazing team from The LGBTQ Health Equity Center at Chase Brexton 7 years ago. Up to this PRIDE, 2023 she has been the committee chair of ELDERPRIDE at the Park and the Program Manager of ELDERPRIDE at Chase Brexton for the past 7 years. The ELDERPRIDE Program is an intentional space and program to keep us engaged in a community where we grew up. Having us, ELDERS in the foot print of PRIDE has been natural, as many of our ELDERS were founders of the BGA to become GCCB and then the GLCCB. At a time where we, our community is under threat ever day in a multitude of ways we, ELDERS realize the importance of remaining visible, speaking Out, speaking Up and speaking Together.

My passion for writing has led me on a journey to self publishing 3 children's books, starting a publishing company and ultimately to coaching others who find themselves on similar paths. I write to make sure my children, and all kids, see equal representation in books. I aim to use my platform to share more diverse books and spread awareness of other indie authors. Every life is a story and I am an open book, eager to share my chapters with you.
